PRESIDENT'S report

A Happy New Year to all our fans, I welcome you all to our first game in 1997 against West Adelaide. This team of course includes three of our Olympic old boys, Robbie Hooker, Pablo Cardozo and Branko Milosevic.

Also we are hoping to welcome tonight (subject to his schedule) the new Soccerroo Coach Terry Venables. We congratulate him on his appointment and give him the full support of UTS Olympic. We currently have three players in the Soccerroo squad, Milan Blagojevic, Kris Trajanovski and Alistair Edwards. Also of course we have two Young Soccerroos Ivan Zelic and Brett Emerton in Tahiti. Lets hope that more Olympic players have the ultimate honour of playing for their country.

I have no doubt that 1997 will be an exciting and positive year for this great club and I look forward to your continued feedback from the surveys that were delivered in a recent match program. The quality of the response from these surveys has been both enlightening and to an extent warming. The comments have shown both a great support for the future of this club and intelligence in the manner of the feedback.

Please keep the feedback coming, it is treated with great respect and confidentiality.

NEWCASTLE
SHARKS
1997

DAVID RATCLIFFE

Tonight we welcome West Adelaide to Belmore Oval. Andrian Santrac brings a very good squad with him this evening with a number of ex Sydney Olympic players in Robbie Hooker, Pablo Cardozo, and Branko Milosevic. The "Sharks" also have Jim Tsekenis, Ross Aloisi and Alex Castro so all points to a very good game this evening.

It was very disappointing to throw away maximum points last week against Newcastle. We have to learn to play out the full ninety minutes and not relax when we think we have the game won. They were points we were desperate for as we are fighting to get into the Top Six. I don't think we had any outstanding players but I was pleased with Adam Ciantar, Alistair Edwards and Peter Tsekenis.

There aren't many points separating a number of teams so it is very important for us to start and string some positive results together to enable us to move up the table. Tonight is the half way, point of the season so there is all to play for, for a number of teams. This is where you expect your players to stand up and show what they are made of.

This is our first game of 1997 and it is very important to start on the right foot. It would certainly lift the players if all our supporters could get behind us from the kick off.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL!

DAVID
RATCLIFFE

CHAIRMAN'S report

There is one thing that you can say about Olympic Soccer Supporters, - they know their soccer! So it would be foolish for me to say that the team is not doing as well as the Board, the coaching staff and the players themselves would wish. The whole Olympic structure is working towards success and many innovative methods are being prepared to get us out of the slump. But, as knowledgeable supporters realise, injuries and missed chances can change the whole fortune of a team. What we admire about our strikers is that even though they have missed chances, they have never "hid" or taken the easy way out. However, like any normal person, they thrive on encouragement and just ask the player how much they appreciate the daunting chant of OLYMPIC, some people say its worth a goal in itself.

The cynics and the sceptics are waiting for a panic reaction from the club. I give you my word this will not happen. The whole club down to the tiniest detail is run on business principles, with judgements being based on logic and planning. In May 1997 we will see the benefits of this patience. And once our crop of talented youngsters mature we will be a long term force in the game.

We can see the results of patience at Sydney United, they now have a crop of players in their early twenties (Popovic, Kalac, Babic etc) who have matured into a strong team. One commentator recently said that the Sydney Olympic trophy cabinet was not as full as should be for a club of our status. Sadly this is true, but what we have realised is that the great teams who have continuous success such as Milan, Panathanaikos and Manchester United are built on strong foundations. These foundations are now being built.

With positive support, the young players who are the foundations will rise to the occasion for this Club, time and time again.

Have a Happy New Year and get behind our boys tonight.
